PART TWO TARIFF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Chapter I Transport Price

A. CALCULATION OF THE TRANSPORT PRICE

15. The transport price is calculated based on:

- a) the tariff distance;
- b) the selected carriage class or type of train, or the type of seat;
- c) the type of fare used per the TR 10 Tariff;
- d) an acquisition discount announced in the PTV.

15. 1. For certain trains or types of fares, the calculation of the price for transport may be set in a different manner, which must be announced duly and in advance.

16. When using the trains of multiple rail carriers, the price for transport is calculated for each carrier separately, always to and from the station lying at the contact point of transfer between the trains of these carriers.

17. The price for transport to rail replacement bus service (NAD) stops specified for the line in the valid timetable or valid closure timetable in brackets without kilometres is calculated to the nearest subsequent railway station with kilometres specified; for boarding, the calculation is made from the nearest preceding railway station with kilometres specified, unless specified otherwise (assignment of a rail replacement bus service (NAD) stop to a different tariff point) in the closure order.

18. If a passenger travels on a segment of one line twice within one transport contract (a so-called divided fare), the fare is calculated separately for the segment from the boarding station to the station from which the same line will be travelled for a second time, and separately for the segment from this station to the destination station. The procedure in calculating a so-called divided fare is the same as for calculating a one-way fare or return fare for each segment or line separately; the total fare is equal to the sum of the fares for the two segments.

18. 1. In determining the line segment which is travelled twice, determinative are the beginning and the end of the line as specified for the line in the valid timetable. If, however, the boarding station lies on two or more lines, a line travelled twice always constitutes a divided fare when ticketing.

18. 2. If a train travels on a line segment of the same line twice for operational reasons on the side of ČD, the procedure for calculating the fare is published for the train in question in the valid timetable of the railway operator.

19. If, within a concluded transport contract, a passenger travels on the Jindřichov ve Slezsku – Mikulovice line and return across the territory of the Republic of Poland, the fare is calculated per Article 15 of the TR 10 Tariff.

20. If, within a concluded transport contract, a passenger travels on the Dolní Žleb – Dolní Poustevna line and return without interrupting the journey, exiting, boarding or transferring on the territory of the Federal Republic of Germany, the price for transport is calculated per the Article 15 of the TR 10 Tariff with the proviso that the tariff distance between Dolní Žleb and Dolní Poustevna is 35 km.

21. If a passenger uses 1st carriage class on only part of a line or on several non-contiguous segments, he or she will receive, in addition to the ticket for 2nd carriage class for the entire line, separate one-off upgrades to 1st carriage class for all the segments in which he or she uses 1st carriage class.

22. In the buses of rail replacement bus service (NAD), the driver may ticket passengers, always only for the segment of the bus journey per Schedule 2G of the TR 10 Tariff. Children, pensioners, ZTP and ZTP/P cardholders, students, holders of discount applications on a card (except for IN 100 and IN Business) will be ticketed for a discounted fare per this schedule.

22. 1. A specific fare schedule between the stations on the rail replacement bus service (NAD) route will be announced for each rail replacement bus service (NAD) separately.

23. – 24. Void.

B. TARIFF DISTANCE

25. Tariff distance is determined for the actual transport journey between railway tariff points (railway stations) according to the kilometres specified in the timetable of the railway operator or the timetable of a contractual bus carrier, and ranges from at least 1 km to at most 600 km.

25. 1. Kilometres are specified in line tables according to the numbers or names of individual lines, or in references below the line tables.

25. 2. The kilometric distance between a border crossing station and the border point (Gr.) is determined according to the table:

Line segment	km	Line segment	km
Aš – Selb Gr.	2	Lanžhot – Kúty Gr.	3
Bohumín – Bohumín Gr.	4	Lichkov – Lichkov Gr.	2
Břeclav – Břeclav Gr.	5	Mikulovice – Glucholazy Gr.	3
Česká Kubice – Furth im Wald Gr.	4	Mosty u Jabl. zast – Čadca Gr.	1

Český Těšín – Český Těšín Gr.	1	Petrovice u Kar. – Zebrzydowice Gr.	2
Dolní Poustevna – Sebnitz Gr.	1	Plesná – Vojtanov Gr.	2
Dolní Žleb – Schöna Gr.	2	Pomezí nad Ohří – Cheb Gr.	1
Harrachov – Jakuszyce Gr.	1	Potůčky – Potůčky Gr.	1
Horní Dvořiště – Summerau Gr.	1	Střelná – Horní Lideč Gr.	2
Javorník nad Veličkou zast. – Vrbovce Gr.	5	Šatov – Unterretzbach Gr.	1
Jindřichov ve Sl. – Jindřichov ve Sl. Gr.	4	Vejpřty – Vějpřty Gr.	1
Královec – Královec Gr.*)	2	Vlářský průsmyk – Nemšová Gr.	1
Kraslice Pod vlekem – Kraslice Gr.*)	3	Železná Ruda–Alžbětín – Bayerisch Eisenstein Gr.	0

*) At the present time, ČD does not operate passenger transport across this border crossing.

25. 3. If the boarding and disembarking station are on a line with the same number, tariff distance is calculated as the difference of their kilometric positions.

25. 4. If the boarding and disembarking stations are not on a line with the same number, tariff distance is calculated as the sum of the distances between:

- the boarding station and the first transfer (contact) station of the two lines;
- the transfer (contact) stations of the individual lines;
- the last transfer (contact) station and the destination station.

25. 4. 1. Contact stations are understood as:

- a station located on multiple lines at the same time, if the number of the transfer line is specified in the valid timetable after the station name;
- a station located at a contact point of various railway carriers;
- the stations specified below, located on various lines between which there is a pedestrian transfer (ticketing as for a journey via a transfer station):

Station	Line	Transfer time	Station	Line
Žalhostice	087	↔ 15 min.	Velké Žernoseky	072
Litoměřice horní nádraží	087	↔	Litoměřice město	072

		20 minutes
Praha-Holešovice zast.	091	↔ 15 minutes	Praha-Bubny	120
Praha hl. n.	-	↔ 11 minut	Praha Masarykovo nádr.	-
Praha-Smíchov	171	↔ 10 minutes	Praha-Smíchov sev. n.	122
Křenovice horní nádraží	300	↔ 20 minutes	Křenovice dolní nádraží	340
Zákolany	093	↔ 10 minutes	Zákolany zastávka	121

26. The tariff distance is not decisive for calculating fares when ticketing in rail replacement bus service under Art. 22 of the TR 10 Tariff.

27. For stations included in a tariff hub, the tariff distance is the same. ČD declares the following tariff hubs:

- Praha hl. n., Praha Masarykovo nádraží and Praha-Holešovice (directly from Praha-Libeň) in the direction from Kolín;
- Praha hl. n. and Praha Masarykovo nádraží in the direction from Čelákovice and Kralupy nad Vltavou;
- Praha-Holešovice and Praha-Holešovice zastávka in the direction from Kralupy nad Vltavou;
- Praha-Ruzyně and Praha-Zličín in the direction from Hostivice;
- Praha hl. n. and Praha Masarykovo nádraží in the direction from Praha letiště/Airport (BUS);
- Jirkov and Jirkov zastávka in the direction from Chomutov.

28. – 29. Void.

C. SUPPLEMENTARY FEES

30. A supplementary fee is calculated in principle as the difference between the price of the fare for which the passenger demonstrates eligibility and the price specified on the presented ticket.

30. 1. A supplementary fee changes the validity of the original ticket only if the greater tariff distance of a new one-way ticket is increased to 51 or more tariff kilometres.

30. 2. A supplementary fee can be issued at a ticket counter or on board a train only on the basis of the presented original travel document, and is valid only with this document, the number of which is specified on the supplementary fee.

31. A one-off supplementary fee (upgrade) to 1st carriage class (for the segment in which the passenger actually uses 1st carriage class) is equal to the difference between the price of the fare in 1st carriage class for which the passenger demonstrates eligibility and the price specified on the presented ticket for 2nd carriage class.

31. 1. A one-off upgrade to 1st carriage class with an IDS travel document (a ticket for an individual journey or a time ticket) can be issued only as the difference between the regular fare (for passengers 15+) or the special fare for children (for passengers -15) and is valid for one journey only with the IDS travel document whose number is specified thereupon.

- 31. 2. If no upgrade is possible for the type of fare used, the passenger will pay the fare in 1st carriage class for which he or she demonstrates eligibility; alternatively, the passenger may use a time upgrade to 1st carriage class under the terms and conditions of ČD commercial offers.
- 32. A one-off supplementary fee on a journey beyond the original destination station is calculated as the difference between the newly calculated price to the new destination station and the price originally paid to the original destination station, provided the passenger announces the need for a supplementary fee at the ticket counter or on the train prior to arriving at the original destination station specified on the ticket.
- 32. 1. If no supplementary fee is possible for the type of fare used, the passenger will pay the fare from the original destination station to the new destination station for which he or she demonstrates eligibility.
- 33. There is a one-off supplementary fee for a circuitous journey, where a passenger – for reasons on his or her side – travels to his or her destination station or to a station in the same place using, either completely or partially, a different longer route than the one for which the presented ticket is valid. In such cases, the passenger will pay as a supplementary fee the fare for which he or she demonstrates eligibility, which is equal to the difference between the price of the fare for the route actually travelled from the boarding station to the destination station for the relevant carriage class and the price of the fare on the presented ticket.
- 33. 1. If a circuitous journey has the same or shorter tariff distance, then the original travel document is recognised.
- 33. 2. If no supplementary fee is possible for the type of fare used, the passenger will pay the fare for which he or she demonstrates eligibility for the journey along the actually travelled route.
- 33. 3. No supplementary charge is collected if the train travels by means of a detour (not announced in advance) for operational reasons or on a longer route announced in a closure timetable.
- 34. If the passenger does not demonstrate eligibility for a reduced price for a seat reservation when travel documents are inspected, he or she will pay a supplementary fee up to the price of the seat reservation for which he or she demonstrates eligibility.
- 35. A one-off supplementary fee for the transport of luggage or the carriage fee for a dog on a journey beyond the original destination station or on a circuitous journey is calculated as the difference between the newly calculated price to the new destination station and the price originally paid to the original destination station, provided the passenger announces the need for a supplementary fee at the ticket counter or on the train prior to arriving at the original destination station specified on the payment receipt for the transport of luggage. A document with the name of the new destination station will also be issued if the supplementary fee is CZK 0.
- 36. In specified cases, the supplementary fee for an application on an In Karta card can be paid by deducting from the price of the newly selected application a calculated hypothetical refund for the unused months of validity of the original application. The application's period of use is always rounded up to the next whole month; in performing the calculation, the calendar month is not used, but rather the actually elapsed (monthly) period of validity from the first day of the application's term of validity.
- 36. 1. A supplementary fee for an application can only be paid at a ticket counter.
- 37.– 39. Void.

D. OVERPAYMENTS

40. Overpayments arising through incorrect calculation of a fare or carriage fee, or wrongfully charged fees will be returned to the passenger by ČD upon request.

41. If the actually travelled route is shorter than the route specified on the ticket presented, the fare for the untravelled kilometres is returned to the passenger only if the shorter journey occurred for reasons on the side of ČD other than an operational detour on a different route.

42. – 44. Void.

E. CARRIAGE FEE

45. Carriage fees for dogs are set in Schedule 4 of the TR 10 Tariff.

46. – 49. Void.

When used on a different train during the ticket's term of validity, the passenger will pay the price difference for a Special-Offer Ticket on that train, or, if no Special-Offer Tickets were announced or are available for the given train, the passenger will pay the price difference for the fare per the TR 10 Tariff for which he or she demonstrates eligibility.

206. 1. 2. A discount card for a disability pensioner to whom a 3rd-degree disability pension has been granted can be issued for at most two years from the date of verification, but no longer than to the age of 65 years; it is not possible to extend the card's validity.

¹⁹ Upon request by an authorised person, this can be issued by the relevant social welfare administration, e.g. the Czech Social Insurance Administration, the Ministry of the Interior, the Military Social Welfare Authority, the General Directorate of the Prison Service, etc.

B. ČD KILOMETRIC BANK (KMB)

210. A KMB is a transferable travel document valid on all ČD trains in 1st and 2nd carriage class.

210. 1. KMBs are sold at selected ticket counters; more detailed information on sales is published on notice boards.

210. 2. The price of a KMB is specified in Schedule 2F of the TR 10 Tariff.

211. On one KMB a maximum of 3 passengers 15 years of age or older can travel, provided they have the same boarding and destination stations entered; two children under 15 count as one passenger 15 or older.

211. 1. Children from 10 to 15 years of age are required to demonstrate their eligibility for a special fare with any (official) identification verified with a stamp or other specific markings from the issuer or issued in the form of a plastic card clearly containing the child's photograph, name and date of birth, or the date of the child's 15th birthday or the child's birth number.

212. The term of validity of a KMB is 6 months from its first day of validity. The validity of a KMB ends at 24:00 (midnight) on the designated last day of validity, even if the kilometric allowance has not been exhausted or if the last commenced journey has not ended.

212. 1. The validity of a KMB may end prior to the last day of its term of validity in these cases:

- a) the kilometric allowance has been exhausted;
- b) part of it is damaged in such a way that the determinative information (on the validity of the KMB or the deducted use of the kilometric allowance) has become illegible;
- c) individual parts have been separated, are missing completely or have been changed or modified;
- d) all cells on the sewn-in coupons have been exhausted;
- e) all control coupons have been exhausted.

212. 2. The term of validity of a KMB booklet cannot be changed or extended after it has been issued.

213. The passenger is required to enter, in black or blue permanent indelible ink, the required information in the section intended for passenger entries in the row of the intended journey no later than prior to the train's departure from the boarding station, and to present the booklet during the first inspection of travel documents for the deduction of kilometres.

213. 1. For one journey (except for divided or associated fares) only one row can be used for all passengers traveling together; a filled in row (or rows) for one journey has the same conditions of validity and use as a one-way ticket.

213. 2. Passengers may not cross out or overwrite any entries in a KMB.

213. 2. 1. If a passenger makes an error in filling in other information than the date of commencing the journey, he or she will write the new correct entry with the same date of commencing the journey in the next row. The cancellation of the original incorrectly filled in row can be performed by an authorised ČD employee on the train or at any ČD ticket counter no later than on the day entered as the day of commencing the journey; without a duly

ČD TR 10 – Change No. 16 – Effective from 13 December 2015
performed cancellation, a deduction of kilometres will also be made for this row the next time the KMB is used.

213. 3. If the passenger decides not to commence a journey that has already been entered, he or she may request the cancellation of the entry only at a ticket counter in the boarding station entered or at the nearest attended station no later than on the day he or she filled in as the day of commencing the journey.

213. 3. 1. An entry with an entered date of commencing a journey in the future can be cancelled by an authorised ČD employee on the train, provided that the passenger uses the following row for the journey in question.

214. The deduction of kilometres from a KMB, the removal of control coupons and the confirmation of information in the portion intended for ČD entries can only be performed by an authorised ČD employee on the train or at the ticket counter, and only on the day which the passenger specified as the day of commencing the journey.

214. 1. Minimum and maximum deduction of kilometres for one passenger:

passenger	2nd carriage class			1st carriage class
	km multiple	min. deduction	max. deduction	km multiple	min. deduction	max. deduction
15+	1	100 km	400 km	1.3	130 km	520 km
-15	0.5	50 km	200 km	0.65	65 km	260 km

214. 2. Rounding of sums of deducted kilometres is always performed to whole kilometres mathematically to the nearest whole number.

214. 3. Without a duly performed cancellation per Article 213. 2. of the TR 10 Tariff, the ČD employee performing the first inspection will deduct kilometres for such an entry as well.

214. 4. If fewer kilometres remain in the KMB than the minimum deduction distance, it can also be used for a shorter route as the last journey, and the balance of the KMB is set to zero.

214. 5. If fewer kilometres remain in the KMB than the amount of the deduction of kilometres for the entered route, the passenger may:

- a) link the KMB²⁰ to another under these conditions:
 - in all of them, the same information must be filled in for the entire intended journey;
 - all of them must be valid for the duration of the journey on the entered route;
 - the balance of kilometres is set to zero for the completely exhausted booklets;
- b) pay the supplementary fare in cash according to the formula: $F = (D - B) \times C$, where F = the supplementary fare in CZK (rounded to whole crowns mathematically to the nearest valid nominal value of the statutory currency in circulation), D = the deduction of kilometres (the maximum deduction is always applied, whereas the minimum deduction of kilometres is not applied to a tariff distance of less than 100 km), B = the balance of kilometres in the KMB, and C = the coefficient specified in Schedule 2F of the TR 10 Tariff; in 2nd carriage class the supplementary fare can be at most for 399 km (or 199 km for a child), and in 1st carriage class the supplementary fare can be at most for 519 km (or 259 km for a child) per person; in this case, the KMB is always set to zero.

²⁰ It is possible to link two or more (partially used) valid KMB booklets.

214. 6. With an upgrade to 1st carriage class. the passenger:

- a) enters the entire travelled route in one cell as a route travelled in 2nd carriage class, and enters every segment of the route in which 1st carriage class will be used; enters as an expression of the deduction of the “upgrade” to 1st carriage class in the following cell; in this case, the minimum deduction of kilometres applies only to the route travelled in 2nd carriage class;
- b) enters the entire travelled route in one cell as a route travelled in 2nd carriage class, and pays the upgrade in cash for every segment in which 1st carriage class will be used; this method is also used if the passenger wants to pay for an upgrade to 1st carriage class in cash for the entire route.

214. 6. 1. To calculate the deduction of the “upgrade” of kilometres and to calculate the cash upgrade to 1st carriage class, the multiplier 0.3 is used for passengers 15 years of age and older, and the multiplier 0.15 is used for children under 15 years of age; rounding is always performed to whole kilometres or crowns mathematically to the nearest whole number or to the nearest valid nominal value of the statutory currency in circulation.

214. 6. 2. A KMB booklet cannot be used for a deduction of the “upgrade” of kilometres to 1st carriage class on a different travel document than a KMB.

214. 7. In the event of a circuitous journey, an authorised ČD employee will replace the original entry with a new entry on the next row according to the route actually travelled, and will cancel the original entry, or the passenger may pay the difference in cash per Art. 214. 5. b) of the TR 10 Tariff.

214. 8. The passenger will enter a segment travelled twice (divided fare) in two cells, although the minimum deduction of kilometres is applied only once (in the cell with the greater kilometric distance) and the maximum deduction of kilometres is applied to each cell separately. The passenger is required to inform the ČD employee of the reason for entering the journey on more than one row.

214. 9. In the event that the kilometric balance in the KMB does not correspond to the balance of kilometres recorded on the control coupons, subsequent claims will not be considered; the first ČD employee to perform a deduction will always even up the balance of kilometres in the coupons with the balance of kilometres in the booklet.

215. In the event of a supplementary fee in cash per Articles 214. 5., 214. 6., 214. 7 or 214. 8. of the TR 10 Tariff, no handling fee or fare surcharge is imposed per the SPPO.

216. A passenger is considered to be without a valid ticket if he or she:

- a) presents for inspection a KMB without as few as one of the necessary fields filled in;
- b) fills in or overwrites information intended to be filled in exclusively by ČD;
- c) fills in information required in the KMB only immediately prior to an inspection performed by a ČD employee;
- d) presents a KMB with an overwritten date of commencing the journey;
- e) has not filled in required information in the KMB indelibly;
- f) does not present the KMB for a deduction of kilometres during the first inspection.

216. 1. An authorised ČD employee will mark such a row as void and will add information according to the passenger’s requirements in a new row. In addition, the ČD employee will deduct 600 km for each passenger or will collect in cash a fare surcharge per the SPPO.

216. 1. 1. It is not possible to combine a partial sanction deduction of kilometres with a payment in cash.

217. If a ČD employee makes an incorrect deduction of kilometres and the passenger or an authorised ČD employee determines it later, an authorised ČD employee will make a correction (including evening up the balance of kilometres with that of the control coupons). If subsequently an insufficient (or zero) kilometric balance is determined, the procedure will be per Article 214. 5 of the TR 10 Tariff.

218. – 219. Void.

Special and Supplementary Carriages or Trains in Passenger Transport

A. SPECIAL CARRIAGES AND TRAINS

270. Special carriages and trains are dispatched by special order and are intended for the exclusive use of the ordering party.

270. 1. Special carriages are attached to regular trains listed in the timetable, and are attached to the beginning or end of the train according to technological feasibility, unless this will obstruct further necessary manipulation of the train.

270. 2. Special trains are dispatched on routes and at times according to the requirements of the ordering party and in accordance with ČD's available options or the capacity of the railway.

271. An order to dispatch a special carriage or train can be submitted at any ticket counter or directly at the address specified on www.cd.cz and must include:

- a) information about the ordering party (address, contact person, telephone number, optionally an e-mail address or fax number for the contact person, billing information);
- b) whether a special carriage (carriages) or train is required;
- c) the originating and destination stations of the requested transport;
- d) requirements for the route of the special carriage, optionally also the numbers of the trains on which the transport is to be realised;
- e) requirements for the route of a special train with specification of stops;
- f) estimated time of departure and arrival, optionally standing time;
- g) the date of transport.

271. 1. In the order, the ordering party can specify a requirement for the type of carriages, and in the case of special trains also the type of locomotive.

271. 2. The order for dispatching must be submitted:

- a) in the case of a special train in inland transport at least 30 days;
- b) in the case of a special train in international transport at least 90 days;
- c) in the case of a special carriage in inland transport at least 15 days;
- d) in the case of a special carriage in international transport at least 60 days; prior to the requested date of the journey.

271. 3. By accepting the order, ČD undertakes to examine its technical feasibility; this does not mean its confirmation.

271. 4. After obtaining the order and conducting a preliminary examination, the unit responsible for arranging the request (the ČD General Directorate) will contact the ordering party to agree on further steps to be taken by each side. If agreement is reached on all important points and on the contractual price, the order will be realised upon a written obligation on the part of the ordering party to pay the contractual price.

272. To dispatch a special carriage or train, the ordering party will pay the contractual price including the regular rate of value added tax, which includes the fare for all passengers in the special carriage or train, expenses for the preparation and use of rail vehicles, use of rail transport infrastructure, traction energy, an assessment of railway capacity, salary expenses and other expected expenses arising in connection with the ordered transport.

272. 1. The contractual price must be paid in full by the ordering party in the agreed method no later than five days prior to scheduled departure.

272. 2. A paid invoice constitutes a receipt for the conclusion of a transport contract for all the passengers in the special carriage or train, for which the provisions of the TR 10 Tariff and SPPO apply reasonably.

273. If the ordering party cancels the order after having undertaken in writing to pay the contractual price per Art. 272 of the TR 10 Tariff, the ordering party is required to pay:

- a) expenses actually incurred, if the order is cancelled more than 28 days prior to scheduled departure;
- b) expenses actually incurred, but at least 10% of the contractual price, if the order is cancelled between 28 and 14 days prior to scheduled departure;
- c) expenses actually incurred, but at least 25% of the total price, if the order is cancelled between 13 and 7 days prior to scheduled departure;
- d) expenses actually incurred, but at least 50% of the total price, if the order is cancelled between 6 days and 72 hours prior to scheduled departure;
- e) the contractual price less the fee for use of transport infrastructure, if the order is cancelled less than 72 hours prior to scheduled departure;

but no less than CZK 1,000.

273. 1. A change in the date of scheduled departure announced by the ordering party seven days or less prior to scheduled departure is considered to be a cancellation of the order with regard to payments.

273. 2. An order can be cancelled in writing at places appropriate for its submission.

274. The ordering party is responsible for ensuring that the agreed capacity of passengers in individual carriages is not exceeded and that the carriages are not damaged by the passengers. For operational and safety reasons, access from the special carriage to the other carriages on the train must be possible at all times; this provision applies to special trains as well.

275. – 279. Void.

B. SUPPLEMENTARY CARRIAGES AND TRAINS

280. 1. Supplementary carriages are intended for regular use and are attached to regular trains listed in the railway timetable.

280. 2. Supplementary trains are intended for regular use and are generally dispatched at the times and on the routes of trains listed in the railway timetable.

281. The dispatching of a supplementary carriage or train is limited and can be realised only if technically and technologically possible, and if the determinative facts for dispatching a train are known at least 7 working days in advance.

282. In supplementary carriages or trains, prices apply per the TR 10 Tariff and acquisition offers announced in the PTV. Seats in these carriages or trains can be integrated into the reservation system or reserved. In the case of a supplementary train for bicycles, a fee for reserving a space per Schedule 3C is always added to the price per Schedule 4.

282. 1. The introduction of a supplementary carriage for the exclusive transport of bicycles is possible in cases arranged in advance after payment of a contractual fee which takes into account the additional costs incurred, the paid fare and the price for transporting the bicycles.

283. In the event that a supplementary train is composed of above-standard or historic vehicles, or is not listed in the valid timetable, the train or period is subject to an announced global price or supplementary fare in addition to the regular or special fare according to terms and conditions announced in Art. 285 – 287 of the TR 10 Tariff.

284. Void.
